

106.7 KLove is a local Christian station that provides me and my community with music and testimony which is encouraging and which promotes programs which help individuals and families struggling with issues such as divorce, drugs etc.